Career choices

Where to start: Start with a conversation about different jobs and professions. How many different jobs can you name? What do you know about what each does?

Prompt: What do you think would be a good job or career to have? Why?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

How to go deeper: What do you know about what it takes to get that job? How could you find out? (Use the back of this page to write.)