Fictional frenemy

Describe a fictional villain or bad guy from a book, movie, or TV show whom you secretly like or admire. What draws you to them?

Keep in mind: When describing characters, think about using descriptive adjectives. Remember that actions tell the reader something about a character, too. For instance, to show a character's impatience, you could write about how they try to cut in line at a supermarket.

Bonus: What would this character say to inspire you? Use a phone to record yourself saying this message in the character’s voice.
