Get out the vote

Should kids be allowed to vote? Why or why not?

Keep in mind: In the past several years, there has been an increase in young people getting involved in politics and running for office around the world. Many of the issues being voted on, such as education, healthcare, and the environment, will affect your generation significantly in the future.

Bonus: How can people under 18 influence politics without voting? (Use the back of this page to write.)
