

Reading stories

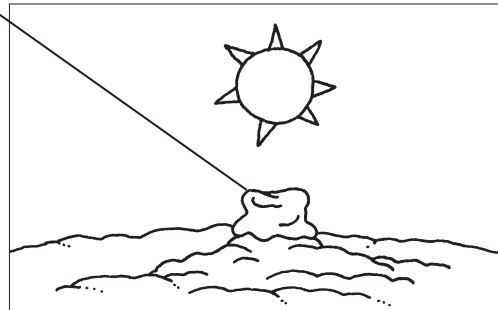

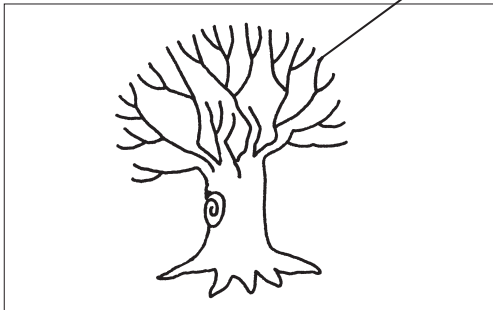

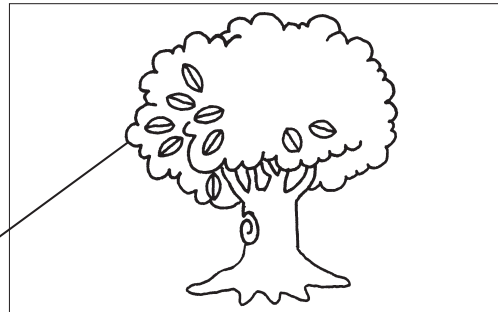

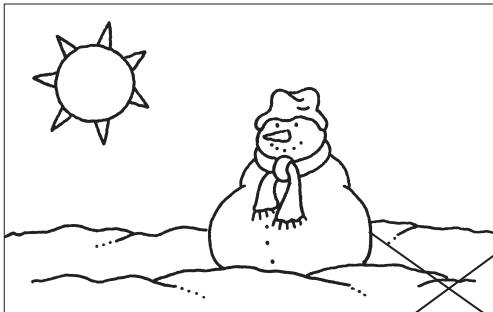

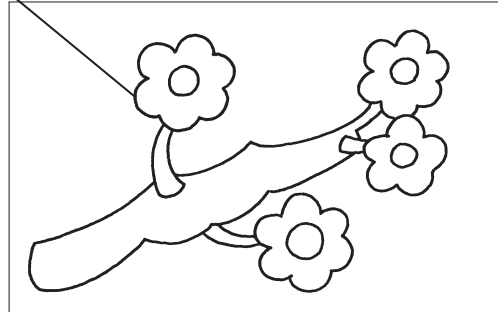

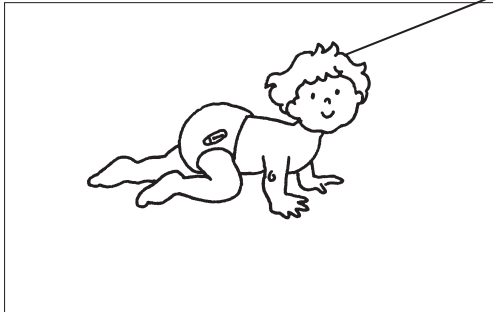

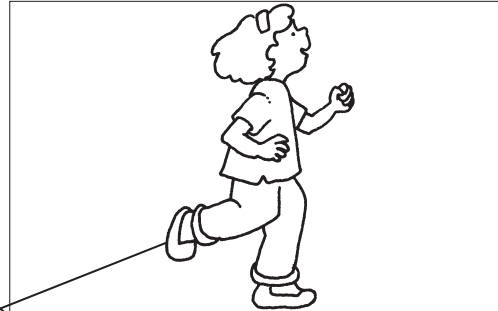

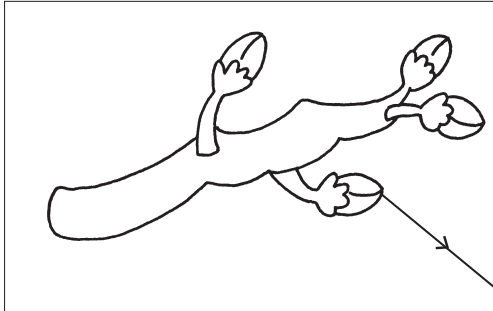

Draw a line from each box on the left to the picture on the right that shows what happens next.

Reading stories

Draw a line from each box on the left to the picture on the right that shows what happens next.

In this activity, ask your child to look at and talk about each picture on the left and then to draw a line connecting it with the picture on the right that shows what happens next.